Lieutenant Peary's arctic expedition has been heard from; he failed to reach the North Pole, but holds the record for having gained the farthest point North—87 degrees 8 minutes; he had to eat some of his dogs and saved two shipwrecked expeditions in starving condition—William J. Bryan has written a letter to Hon. Bird S. Coler, of New York, urging all Democrats to support Hearst. Coler thinks Root's Utica speech helped Hearst; Hughes and Hearst made numerous campaign speeches in Greater New York last night and were greeted by large and enthusiastic audiences—By agreement between the Southern Railway officials and representatives of the striking machinists the men will return to work next Monday and the matter of wages will be left in arbitration—In his speech in Greater New York last night Mr. Hearst welcomed as enemies Secretary Root, Boss Croker and Pat McCarran, representatives of the trusts; he called attention to the fact that Root and Hughes were attorneys for numerous monster trusts and so was Senator Knox, who for two years held up Mr. Hearst's case against the coal carrying railroads—The army officers are holding a pow-wow, and the chiefs of the Utes in Wyoming and the indications are that they will give in although it is said that the band has deposed Chief Appar, who is for peace and elected Black Whiskers and Red Cap because they want to join the Cheyennes to fight the soldiers—The first immigrant ship direct from a South Atlantic port is expected in Charleston to-day with 500 allens—John B. The Hon. William Randolph Hearst probably will hereafter regard Secretary Root as the "Root of all evil."

A Republican claims that if Adam were living he would be a Republican. Might be so, for Adam was the first monopolist. When he was turned out of the Garden of Eden he had farming all his own way.

If North Carolina could talk she would tell you that she always feels safe when her sons vote the Democratic ticket. Her true sons will act accordingly when they go to the polls next Tuesday.

The Republican party in North Carolina threatens the public schools. Never mind. The voters of North Carolina on next Tuesday will stand between the public schools and the Republican party.

At Utica Thursday night Secretary Root held the proxy of President Roosevelt and took the scalp of William Randolph Hearst. Root's malediction was the vengeance of Roosevelt. It was a sorry spectacle, and may help Hearst.

It is published as an item of news "Ibsen, the poet, at 61, sour and gray, was in love with a girl of 20." There is something radically wrong about that item. Ibsen certainly must not have been "sour." The fact is there was nothing strange about Ibsen's taste. There was nothing the matter with Ibsen—unless he took into his head to marry the 20 year old.

The Chicago girl who offered herself for sale is going to write her experience for a magazine. We didn't make any offer to buy the girl, for we just knew that all a girl in that neighborhood was after was to "sell" the fellow that would bite at her game.

"Republican prosperity" has overdone itself in Kansas. The corn crop was so fine that the ears produced were too long to go through the corn-sheller, putting the farmers to the trouble of cutting them in two. See how what it has done for Kansas. Southern cotton growers ought to demand that "Republican prosperity" put up the price of the fleecy staple and make it stay up without any further interference by the law of supply and demand.

FOR THE DEFENDANT

Case of Capt. Lauchlin McLean Continued Yesterday in United States Court

WILL GET TO JURY TO-DAY

Strong Array of Witnesses for Master of British Ship Charged With Detention of U. S. Marines. Grand Jury Discharged.

All of yesterday's session of the Federal Court was taken up with the continuation of the trial of Capt. Lauchlin McLean, master of the British steamer Osceola, charged with unlawfully detaining aboard his ship the United States marines, Byrnes and Flynn. The defence presented a strong array of facts in contradiction of the testimony of the seamen during the morning and had practically closed its case when a recess for the day was taken at 2 o'clock. This morning at 9:30 o'clock argument by counsel will likely begin and it is expected that the case will get to the jury about the noon hour. Judge Purnell announced from the bench yesterday that court would take a recess at 2 o'clock this afternoon until Thursday of next week.

The government having rested its case the afternoon before, the defence began with its testimony yesterday morning. J. E. Bradley, the boarding master, was the first witness yesterday. He testified to having shipped the men and said they were perfectly sober and climbed up a long ladder on the side of the ship without assistance. He was certain they had nothing to drink from the time they went to bed at 11 o'clock the night before they went aboard the ship at 5 o'clock the next morning. They signed the ship's papers under fictitious names in the presence of the British vice consul and the master of the ship. Capt. McLean, the defendant, was the next witness and told the same story of the affair as was given in at the Commissioner's hearing. The first he knew of the men on board being marines was when the steamer was off Southampton coming into Wilmington. He told the men to remain aboard the ship until he reached Wilmington and he would investigate the matter. Upon his arrival he reported to British Vice Consul Sprunt and was giving the story of the men to that official when a telephone message came to Mr. Sprunt's office that the men had already deserted. Under the advice of Mr. Sprunt, it was agreed to have the men locked up for desertion from the ship and in connection with the same the claim that the men were marines would be inquired into. Mayor Waddell, who gave the men preliminary trial for desertion, corroborated the captain as to its being his purpose to fully investigate the claim of the men to being marines.

Maj. James Haughton, British Vice Consul at Newport News, was the star witness for the defence. He testified to the men being sober when they were taken aboard and told of their signing the ship's articles in his presence. He testified to the high character of Capt. McLean and absolved him from the use of profane language under the most trying circumstances. He had been British Vice Consul at Newport News for more than nine years and during that time had shipped more than three thousand sailors. The cross-examination of the witness by District Attorney Skinner was vigorous and several minor tilts occurred between the witness and the official of the court.

Other witnesses who testified most positively in Capt. McLean's favor were Karl Klein, steward on the ship; A. Frostholm, boatswain; John McCurdy, first mate; Robert McIntyre, second engineer; John Watson, chief engineer, and one or two other members of the Osceola's crew.

Byrnes, Flynn and the other witnesses held in jail by the government as witnesses have been discharged and now have their freedom. Although it is reported that Byrnes and Flynn have been posted as deserters from the U. S. S. Columbia, there seems to be no effort made to arrest them for desertion from the cruiser.

The only other matters disposed of in the court yesterday were the following: Miles I. P. Clark, alias Cook, Cumberland county, illicit distilling, capias and continued. Ed. Burns, Cumberland county, retailing, etc., called and failed, nisi sci fa and capias. Jas. Barfield, Cumberland, retailing, true bill by grand jury.

The grand jury came into court at 10:55 o'clock, reported that it had completed its work and was discharged with thanks. William Cash, an attendant of the court, came in yesterday morning in

MODEL INSTITUTION

Funeral Director Walter E. Yopp Now in Handsome New Establishment on Princess Street—Show and Stock Rooms Well Filled.

Mr. Walter E. Yopp, the funeral director, is now located in his handsome new three-story brick building at No. 211 Princess street and has one of the prettiest and most handsomely appointed establishments of its kind in the State. The first floor front is devoted to the display of fine coffins and caskets in handsome glass cases finished in antique oak and presenting a very attractive appearance. The rear on the first floor is the office and trimming rooms of the establishment and on the second floor, reached either by elevator or stairway, is the stock room. On the third floor has been fitted up in convenient style a room to be used as a morgue.

In the show and stock rooms are to be found some of the prettiest coffins and caskets manufactured in the country. Mr. Yopp having recently enlarged his line of all kinds of goods. The show room will later be beautified with a number of potted plants and flowers to make the place as attractive as possible for the people who go there.

Mr. Yopp has with him a very able assistant in Mr. Fred A. Nort, of Atlanta, Ga., who enjoys the unique distinction of being the second youngest funeral director and embalmer in the United States—a very talented one, too, as shown by the difficult work done since he came to Wilmington. Mr. Nort is a graduate of the Bellevue Hospital Morgue and the Renaud School of Embalming, in New York. He will room in the building and an electrical device has been placed for night calls. Mr. Yopp is to be congratulated upon his new place and one would like to say "It is a pleasure to do business with him."

BENJAMIN MAY DIE.

Negro Hurt at Compress in Extremis at Florence, S. C.

Chief of Police Williams yesterday received advices from Florence, S. C., that Elias Benjamin, the negro assaulted Monday morning at the Champion compress by the two Murphys, who are confined in jail, has become much worse and that the probabilities are that he will die. The Murphys were arrested, it will be remembered, as they were preparing to leave their homes after the assault upon Benjamin with a bar of iron. Benjamin was carried to the hospital at first but he recovered somewhat and wanted to go to his home at Florence. He was permitted to do so on Wednesday, but has become much worse.

The Murphys are under commitment from Justice Bornemann, who was advised by Chief Williams yesterday of the message he had received from Florence. Justice Bornemann will keep the Murphys in jail without bond until he hears further from Florence.

VERDICT FOR $36,768.80.

Lengthy Suit Pending in Sampson For Years Completed Yesterday.

Sampson Superior Court which has been in session for two weeks, was engaged since Monday in the trial of an important suit entitled M. A. Mosley and others against W. A. Johnson, administrator of W. N. Peden, deceased and the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, involving the settlement of a large estate near Clinton. All the week was taken up in hearing the testimony and the jury which had the case in hearing returned a verdict last night at 6 o'clock awarding the plaintiffs $36,768.80, which was one of the largest in the history of the county. The plaintiffs were represented by Stevens, Basley, & Weeks, W. T. Dorch and George E. Butler while the defence was represented by Maj. John D. Kerr and F. R. Cooper, of Clinton. Col. Johnson, of this city, and others from this city attended the court.

Republican Campaigning.

H. F. Seawell, Esq., of Carthage, was in the city yesterday on his way to Burgaw, Pender county, where he spoke to an audience of small proportions yesterday. From Burgaw he goes to Kenansville, Duplin county to-day. Col. Harry Skinner, Col. W. S. Pearson and Hon. J. E. Fowler have an appointment to speak at Smithfield to-day. Ex-Senator Marion Butler has an appointment to speak at Clinton on Monday of the coming week. Thus far the Republican spellbinding has been confined almost exclusively to the West.

A very drunken condition and was talking out loud to the annoyance of everybody. He was promptly ordered to jail by Judge Purnell.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY

Speaking in First and Fifth Wards Last Night Were Well Attended.

EFFORTS OF THE COMMITTEE

Godwin, Sinclair, Morton and Bellamy Were Centers of "Whirlwind Campaign" Last Night—Campaign Literature.

Chairman William J. Bellamy and the Democratic County Executive Committee may well feel gratified at the success of the rally of the party in the First and Fifth wards of the city last night. The weather was a tribulation and uninviting for the ordinary voter to attend an open air meeting, but the crowds were good and the addresses by the speakers were inspiring. The rally in each of the wards also suffered from the disadvantage of the meeting in the other part of the city, but all told, with the divided crowd, the attendance at each place betokens an increased majority for the ticket next Tuesday.

The manner of the two meetings under the one auspices and with the same speakers at each place alternating savored of the whirlwind campaigning of other days and the details were certainly carried out with that effect. As fast as one speaker had concluded at one of the stands he was whisked across the town in an automobile to the next appointment and vice versa.

The meeting in First ward was the most largely attended and the crowd there was composed largely of working men to whom attendance meant some sacrifice. They came in good numbers, listened attentively and went away with an evident resolution to do their duty on election day. Chairman William J. Bellamy presided alternately at both meetings and at each place spoke briefly of the efforts of the Executive Committee and the need of co-operation on the part of the people. The speaking in First ward was at Fourth and Brunswick streets from an improvised stand erected there, the corner being lit up with burning far barrels. Hon. H. L. Godwin, Democratic nominee for Congress in this district, was the principal speaker there and was presented by Col. Geo. L. Morton, Democratic nominee for the Legislature from New Hanover. Mr. Godwin made a fine impression on the voters of the First, making a good speech upon both State and National issues. Col. George L. Morton also spoke at some length to his constituents of that division of the city. Hon. N. A. Sinclair, Democratic nominee for Solicitor in the Seventh district, had expected to be present and speak at the earlier appointment in the First ward but his destiny hung on the A. & Y. train upon which he was travelling from Fayetteville and the people understood what that meant.

The speaking in the Fifth ward was at Fifth and Castle streets where the crowd was not so large but very enthusiastic, standing in closely buttoned overcoats and listening attentively. Both Mr. Godwin and Mr. Sinclair spoke in the ward, the former confining himself largely to National issues and the latter discussing State issues with gloves on. His arraignment of the Republican party and its leaders was quite severe and brought forth manifestations of approval from the gathering.

While Mr. Godwin was speaking, a sensational incident occurred in the crowd that came near marring the effect of the speech. Some hearer cast some aspersions upon Mr. Godwin, little thinking that any of his friends were around. A stranger caught the remark and nailed it with such emphatic language that a policeman placed him under arrest. He was led out of the confines of the crowd, which followed until the patrol wagon carried him off. His friends, however, volunteered any amount of bail and several accompanied him down to the police station where bond was given and the stranger released before the ink was dry on his name on the police record of arrests. He rejoined the crowd at the speaking a little later and was congratulated by a number of the enthusiastic Godwin men at the speaking.

Music for the rally last night was furnished by Kneissel's Band. It was much regretted that Solicitor Duffy was not able to be present as he expected. He is still sick at his home in Onslow and while a telegram yesterday stated that he was improved, he was too unwell to fill his appointment. The same disappointment was felt because of the fact that Hon.

HIS BROTHER DYING

Governor Glenn Cancels All Campaign Dates in North Carolina—Long Trip For Prisoner—Rev. J. N. Cole Removes to Raleigh.

(By Southern Bell Long Distance Telephone.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 2.—A telegram was received at the Governor's mansion this afternoon from the Governor at Macon, Ga., stating that his brother, E. T. B. Glenn, cannot live. His death is expected at any moment. Governor Glenn is with him and has cancelled all campaign engagements in the State.

A requisition was made on the Governor of California to-day for James McKinney, who is wanted in Mitchell county for the murder of Daniel M. Hollyfield on October 27th of last year. McKinney is now in jail at Los Angeles, Cal., and Sheriff P. H. Mashburn, of McDowell county, will make the transcontinental trip for the prisoner.

Rev. John N. Cole, D. D., the retiring presiding elder of the Rockingham district of the Methodist Church, will make his final visitation to his congregation this week and move his family to Raleigh on Wednesday. He has already taken charge of the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh. His successor as presiding elder of the Rockingham district will be named by the Bishop in a few days.

WARM IN GUILFORD.

Heated Campaign Closed With Rally in Greensboro Last Night.

(By Southern Bell Long Distance Telephone.)

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 2.—The Democratic campaign in Guilford county came to a spectacular close here to-night with a grand rally at which all the county candidates spoke. The ticket will be elected next Tuesday by a good safe majority. Hon. E. J. Justice,ayed Republican Chairman Adams in his address to-night, making reply to what was termed his keynote speech at Asheville in the early part of the campaign. There was no joint canvass in the county this year, the Republicans declining to meet the Democrats. The majority it is confidently predicted will be larger than ever before in this county.

UNITED STATES ENGINEER.

Maj. Joseph E. Kuhn Named as Temporary Successor of Maj. Winslow.

The district offices of the United States Engineers in this city is advised that Maj. Joseph E. Kuhn succeeds Maj. E. Evelyn Winslow, in charge of the Norfolk district permanently and the Wilmington district temporarily. The office will be transferred to him November 1st. Maj. Winslow is transferred from the Norfolk district to the Washington barracks, at Washington, D. C., and will be in charge of the school of instruction there. Maj. Kuhn is expected to arrive in Wilmington shortly and take charge of the office here. It is not known when an engineer will be named to permanently succeed Capt. R. P. Johnston, resigned to take charge of extensive private interests which he has near Asheville, in this State.

HALLOW'E'N AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Elaborate Affair Last Night Under Auspices of Ladies' Auxiliary.

One of the most pretentious entertainments ever given at the Y. M. C. A. under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Association, was the Hallow'e'en party last night, which was put on by 90 or more prominent young people with elaborate settings and costumes. The entire second floor of the Association was used to carry out the Hallow'e'en effect and the attendance was very large indeed. Music, refreshments and the tempting of fate by numerous guests of the delightful affair, were the chief features of the evening and the ladies scored a great success with the undertaking.

H. L. Cook, of Cumberland, could not be present. He was called back to his home in Fayetteville yesterday, quite unexpectedly to him at the time the appointment was made.

A large amount of active work is being done by the Democratic County Executive Committee just at present and the headquarters at Mr. Bellamy's office yesterday presented a busy scene. Four clerical assistants and a number of boys were engaged in folding printed matter which is being mailed to voters urging them to come out on Tuesday and vote. Tickets are also being mailed so that there will be no mistake. Two buggy loads of literature bearing on the election were mailed through the Wilmington post-office yesterday.

THE ARTESIA COLONY

New Village of Carolina Trucking Development Company Near Lake Waccamaw

SETTLERS FROM ENGLAND

Great Activity Among Immigrants Preparing to Make Their Homes on This Side—Business Enterprises Are Rapidly Springing Up.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Artesia, N. C., Nov. 1.—Twenty-five English people arrived yesterday direct from Liverpool, Eng., to settle on the land of the Carolina Trucking Development Company at the new town of Artesia, three miles west of Lake Waccamaw. These are the first of a large number of English families who are coming to settle on the truck farms of the company in this county. They are a healthy, energetic looking set of people and have already purchased their farms from the splendid land of the Briggs tract, which is one of the properties acquired and developed by this enterprising company in the Wilmington section of the State. Everyone in the party is delighted with this country and with Artesia, including the women and children, who are making themselves perfectly at home on their new farms.

The Carolina Trucking Development Company ran out a special train from Wilmington to bring the party to Artesia and to-day seventy-eight pieces of baggage containing all their personal effects were put off from the afternoon train.

Artesia is a very busy looking place this week. The Lamphear-Buck Lumber Company which opened up its large mill here in July is running at full time, employing about fifty-five hands and cutting the mill timber from the farm lands. There are two restaurants at Artesia now, five houses are under construction and at least a dozen more will be built within a month.

The Bogue Trading Company, of Hallsboro, N. C., of which Mr. Bruce Pierce is manager, has just put in a stock of goods at the company's store building at Artesia and within a week will move its large stock of goods there, having leased the store of the C. D. T. Co.

A request to the government to establish a postoffice at Artesia is receiving numerous signatures and one will be opened at a very early date.

The Artesia school site has already been tendered by the company to the superintendent of public instruction and the school will be erected at once.

Mr. Lamphear, of the Lamphear-Buck Lumber Company, has brought his large touring automobile to Artesia and is now the champion of good roads movements for Bogue township.

The Carolina Trucking Development Company holds out the same liberal terms to people of this section as it does as to immigrants from Europe and has already sold some very desirable farms and town lots to people from Hallsboro and Wilmington. The latest investigations of the Department of Agriculture at Washington, are furnished direct to the company and then its Agriculture Department provides the settlers with all needed information regarding the cultivation of the truck crops for which this part of our country is better adapted than any other. At present Mr. P. W. Davis, represents the Agricultural interest of the company at Artesia, and Mr. Geo. Catlett is the civil engineer in charge of the extensive road construction and drainage which is being completed on this tract.

We extend to these new comers to our State, a hearty welcome, and wish them a good measure of prosperity, feeling assured that they are a valuable acquisition to our American citizenship.

No Trace of Missing Man.

Mr. Taylor Fields, of Laurinburg, has arrived in the city to prosecute the search for his son young Walter Fields, who mysteriously disappeared from Wilmington on Monday night, the particulars of which were given in yesterday's paper. Mr. Fields was able to learn nothing and the drowning theory thus far seems to be the most plausible. The city and county authorities have been enlisted in the search for the missing young man and it is expected that the fate of the stranger will be established in a day or two.

VOTE FOR GODWIN.

The Clarkson Express gives this timely and excellent advice:

"It matters not, Mr. Schulken may be as good man morally and intellectually as Mr. Godwin, but that is no reason why the Republican nominee for Congress should receive a single Democratic vote. Occasionally we see a man in Bladen or Columbus, who says he is going to vote for Schulken because he is acquainted with him and is not acquainted with Godwin. This is no excuse whatever. Should Mr. Schulken be elected to Congress, which is no possible chance of his being, he would vote with those Northern Republicans on every issue. The Republican Congresses have shown several things that the people should remember. They have shown that they believed in a high tariff and were a friend to the trusts and combines. By all means vote for the Democratic Congressman, who favors a lower tariff and is an enemy to the trusts."

Godwin not only does not stand for the party that taxes the people for the benefit of the trusts and privileged classes, but he is dead against the party whose conventions in the North have planks favoring the enforcement of the reconstruction constitutional amendments against the South. Just how a Southern man and particularly a North Carolinian can vote for a party that thus seeks to renege his State is hard to conceive. By all means vote for Godwin for Congress.

WHAT ADAMS' LEADERSHIP REPRESENTS.

The Chatham Record in the following shows whether the Republican party in North Carolina is yet entitled to the respect of the white men of North Carolina:

"The election of Spencer B. Adams as chairman of the Republican State Executive committee was peculiarly appropriate for a party that still boasts in its national campaign text book of what it has done for the negroes and of the thousands of negroes it still has in office."

"Why?"

"Because when the negroes could vote in this State he was one of their most intimate political associates, having more than once been a candidate and voted for on the same ticket with a negro. For instance, when he was elected clerk of the Superior Court of Caswell county in 1890 his name was on the same ticket with that of a negro who was the Republican candidate for register of deeds. What do the white men of North Carolina think of another white man running on the same ticket with a negro? What do they think of a white man so anxious for office that he is willing for a negro to run on the same ticket with him for the office of register?"

"And now the Democrats are urged to desert their old party and join a party whose head is such a man!"

"Does this look like the Republican party has become respectable enough for decent Democrats to join it?"

Our esteemed contemporary The Record, is speaking from the actual record in Chairman Adams' own county. Even if the leadership of the Republican party in North Carolina were not in the hands of the old gang, and if it were as indisputably respectable as the Democratic party in the State, the white men of North Carolina could not afford to support it. Why? Because the Republican party of North Carolina stands for the National Republican party which stands for the Northern platforms which urge Congress to enforce against the South the Fifteenth amendment to the Constitution in order to upset the suffrage laws of North Carolina and other Southern States. That programme aims at again admitting a horde of negro voters to the polls and thus endangering civilized conditions in the South. It means a further and determined effort to negroize the South and if Congress succeeds in its efforts it is useless to foretell the anxiety, trouble and turmoil it will bring about in the Southern States. It is needless to say, furthermore, that it would be the worst thing that could happen for the negro.

For more reasons that we can't stand for the Republican party in North Carolina we cannot trust the National Republican party. We have ten times more reasons to fear the National organization than we have to dread the State aggregation. The safety of the South lies, as it ever has, in the Democratic party.

TROUBLE IN PLUM ORCHARD.

The Washington Post (Ind.) gives us the following idea about the Republican party in the North is like:

"The new capitol edifice at Harrisburg cost the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania $4,000,000 and the 'furnishings' of it cost $9,000,000 additional. It seems that Pennsylvania is full of reformers and the new treasurer is one of them. He got to nosing around the capitol and saw a very stately, a very lofty and a very handsome flagstaff, fashioned from some gigantic pine of the forest primeval, no doubt, and he went and scrutinized the accounts and found that this pole cost the taxpayers the comfortable little sum of $850. Of course, a reformer is prone to think that a pretty steep price for a flagpole and doubtless the Democrats of old Berks reared one to Buchanan and Breckinridge, just as good 50 years ago, for less than $8.50 and so he roto to the Cramp Shipbuilding Company, of Philadelphia to get their opinion of what the staff was worth. That concern returned for answer that they would supply them in any quantities at $75 each."

"The governor of Pennsylvania has made a speech on the new capitol and he argues that it is a very cheap building; but he drops into mathematics and brings to bear percentages and averages and does it beautifully—almost as expert as does the Department of Commerce and Labor in this town when it proves by the same processes that while the price of grain and live stock have been greatly increased to the farmer, the prices of bread and meat have been greatly reduced to the laborer."

"But from what we gather there is nothing but reform in Pennsylvania. Senator Penrose put it in his convention, and the Lincoln Republicans are nothing if not reformers. As for the Democrats, they are howling it from 'eend to eend.' It is true that Senator Knox proposed Roosevelt for the paramount, and Congressman Dazell insisted on the tariff; but it now looks as though this flagpole would supplant both."

"And that is why there is trouble in the plum orchard."

The North Carolinians who do not consider the Republican party in North Carolina respectable, but claim to be National Republicans will observe that the party in the North is not any more respectable and far more dangerous than it is in North Carolina. Corrupt Republican politics in New York and other Northern States furnish more evidence of the same kind.

—The selection of Oscar S. Straus by President Roosevelt to be Secretary of Commerce and Labor has caused a big stir among the politicians of the country. The fact that Mr. Straus has been a lifelong Democrat adds interest to the bestowal upon him of a Cabinet portfolio. In the New York State election, it is argued, there will be many Democrats who will be won over to the Hughes ticket by this evidence of the President's administration to place personal worth above party.—Schenectady Star (Dem.)

—The biggest campaign bet of the season in New York is said to have been made a few days ago by John W. Gates, putting up $30,000 on Hughes to $10,000 on Hearst. Mr. Gates usually bets a million or nothing, but this time it seems he had to accommodate himself to the amount of money that was in sight on the other side. A peculiarity of the New York election betting this year is the fact that most of the money is being handled by firms of bankers and brokers "for customers." In New York one can invest in an election bet the same as in a stock transaction or a wild cat mining scheme.—Savannah News.

—"Wait a minute till I get my clothes off!" came a shrill voice from the back end of the cable car. All the strapholders turned their heads as one man. It was a small boy striving to drag off the hamper containing his mother's washing.—Judge.

—Mother (who has been asked to suggest a game for a rainy afternoon)—Why don't you pretend you are me? And George can be daddy. Then you might play at housekeeping. Daughter—But, mother, we've quarreled once already!—Punch.

—"You don't realize that there are other considerations. In life than money," said the censorious friend. "Yes, I do," answered Senator Sorghum. "But whenever I want anything done I can't get the other fellow to realize it."—Washington Star.

—The Champion Fiber Company, of Waynesville, has decided to build a railroad from Canton to Sunburst, a distance of 18 miles through the mountains.

—The new Commercial Bank opened for business at Waynesville, will R. E. Osborne president and C. M. Hickerson, cashier. They did a big business for the first day. Waynesville now has three excellent and sound banks.

—Raleigh News and Observer, Nov. 2: Clerk of the Federal Courts Grant, went to Goldsboro yesterday, having learned by telegraph that a big barn at his brickyard had been burned early yesterday morning and with it much corn and other feed. The insurance was $1,500.

—Wilson special, Nov. 1: Paul Knight, a painter of this city, committed suicide by taking laudanum, which he mixed with whiskey. No motive is assigned except despondency. The funeral will take place tomorrow. The deceased was 30 years old and unmarried.

—Mr. George W. Watt, of Durham, has contributed $250 to the fund for the erection of a monument to the late Dr. Charles D. McIver, president of the State Normal College at Greensboro. Quite a sum has already been subscribed and other contributions are being pledged.

—Raleigh News and Observer, Nov. 2: The receipts of the postoffice in Raleigh, have broken all records in the history of the office, and this is an index of the growth of Raleigh. The receipts for the past month were $6,758.59, a gain over October last year of $568.88, and surpassing those of December last, an unusually heavy month for mail, by $342.52.

—Spencer special, Nov. 1: The commissary of the Sturm & Dillard Company, located near Linwood, where the Southern has a big force of laborers at work on its double track, was burned late yesterday afternoon. The fire originated from a cigarette dropped in a can of gasoline. The loss aggregated about $2,000.

—For several months the demand for dwelling houses at Hamlet has been much greater than the supply. As many as 20 families have been looking for a house at the same time, but it now looks as though the situation would be relieved. There are contracts out for at least 30 houses at this time and many more in contemplation.

—One hundred and fifty men are busy throwing dirt on the new railroad that is to connect Carthage and Pinehurst. The work will be pushed and it is expected that the trains will be running in February. The road will be operated by the Ashboro and Aberdeen Railroad Company, of which Mr. Henry A. Page is president. The Carthage people desired another railroad, they subscribed money and with the Pages will build it. That road will be of great advantage to Carthage.

—Raleigh News and Observer, Nov. 2: Thursday proved a big day in all ways at the Negro State Fair and there were crowds present at the grounds to examine the exhibits and enjoy the attraction. It is estimated 5,000 people were present and all of these were delighted with the Fair. It is said that it was perhaps the biggest day ever enjoyed by the Fair in the 28 years of its existence. Hundreds came in on the trains to attend the Fair which is proving a big success.

—Greenville special, Nov. 1: W. H. Harrington, one of the men under indictment charged with whitecapping W. J. Peel in April last, and who has since been evading the officers, and for whose arrest Governor Glenn had offered a reward of $100 was arrested this week in Charleston, S. C. Deputy Sheriff Knox, of Charleston, arrived here last night with Harrington, and delivered him to Sheriff Tucker. Harrington gave bond for his appearance at January Court and was released from custody.

—North Wilkesboro special, Nov. 1: W. W. Barber, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee for Wilkes county, has in his possession threatening letters written to Democrats whose wives or kindred are postmasters and these letters were sent under Congressman Blackburn's frank, contrary to law. Mr. Blackburn did not attempt to register in this county. The books closed last Saturday. His name was erased two years ago on account of nonresidence and his failing to register debarred him from voting.

—Spencer special, Nov. 1: Notwithstanding the prospects for an early settlement of the strike of the machinists on the Southern Railway System the company is still making elaborate preparations to care for the strike-breakers in its service. Hundreds of bunks and lodging rooms have been built within the shops at Spencer, where the men are now quartered. The company has also installed a large bakery outfit with a capacity to furnish bread for hundreds of men, and all the new employes, including a number of foremen, are being fed in the shops which are guarded constantly.

—The Seaboard has had under consideration for the past few months the advisability of erecting a Y. M. C. A. building and organizing an association at Hamlet for the benefit of its employees. The company is anxious to do everything that it can for the convenience and betterment of its men and is willing to spend a large sum of money for this purpose, provided the men want it. Hence the matter of an association has been referred to the different brotherhoods and they have taken hold of the matter. The probabilities are that in a short time Hamlet will have a Young Men's Christian Association.

—Rocky Mount special, Nov. 1: Mr. S. K. Fountain who has been both freight and passenger agent at Rocky Mount for a great many years, has been retired as freight agent and in the future will give his entire attention to the passenger service. Mr. J. A. Raffield, who has been in the employ of the Coast Line here for some time has been appointed freight agent to succeed Mr. Fountain. Mr. Raffield during his stay here has made a host of friends and by the ease and rapidity with which he has handled his work in the past has fully proven his entire competency for his new position. He enters upon his new duties to-day. Up to a year or so ago one man easily handled both the passenger and freight departments at this point, but such has been the growth of the town and the increase of both freight and passenger traffic here has been so large that it would now be an impossibility for one man to look after both.

—Sampson Democrat—Mr. William R. Best, of Bowden, died in Richmond on the evening of October 27. He had been in feeble health for several years and a short time ago his physicians pronounced his trouble cancer of the stomach and in a dangerous stage, advising that he be taken to a hospital at once, which was done and an operation performed though it was seen at once that he could not recover. His remains were brought to his late home and interred in the family burial grounds beside his lamented wife, who preceded him about a year ago. Deceased was a man of upright character in the fullest sense. It was not in his nature to do injury to or harm any one by unkind words or acts; but ever ready to do all the good he could among those about him, and his life was spent in an honest effort to exert an influence for good over all with whom he associated and in this he took great delight. He was a man of good intellect and the greater part of his life was devoted to teaching. Many a boy and girl can trace some of their earliest and best impressions to his teaching. He embraced the Christian religion when a young man, and was afterwards an earnest and devoted Christian worker. He was 60 years of age. Three sons survive him.

—Raleigh News and Observer, Nov. 1: There is reported as taking place yesterday a most brutal affair at the Fair Grounds where a negro came near putting out the eye of a white man, one-armed and one-legged, who works with the merry-go-round. The white man is Harry K. West, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and he is a ticket collector for the merry-go-round and says that a negro who was riding on the merry-go-round refused to pay for his ride. The ticket taker, who has but one arm and one leg, insisted on being paid, and finally the negro was put off as he refused to pay. He waited around and finally got a chance at the cripple, throwing a rock, which knocked the man senseless, and cut him badly above the eye. As soon as the injured man was able to get up he offered a reward of $10 for the name of the negro, who fled, but none of the other negroes who were in the crowd would tell anything. West was very bloody about the head and face and the sight was a pitiful one. No officers were present and the negro has thus far gone unpunished.

—Richmond, Va., dispatch, Oct. 31:—In company with Deputy Sheriff Adams, W. A. Taylor, of North Carolina, president of the American Security and Protective Company and secretary of the Farmer's Mutual Protective Association, and L. A. Peartree, secretary of the first company, left this afternoon for Cumberland Court House, where they will be given a hearing on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The two men were arrested yesterday afternoon upon a warrant sworn out by J. H. Frazer, a wealthy farmer and stock owner, who had purchased and partially paid for a policy of insurance on his stock, which policy was never delivered. Commissioner of Insurance Button has made a report in which he says the company could not pay its obligations without inveighing new policy holders. The two officers had already been discharged by them for failure to make a settlement and say that they knew nothing of the transaction. O. L. Joyner is president and R. J. Cobb treasurer of the Farmers' Mutual Protective Association. Both of these gentlemen are from North Carolina.

—Ex-Governor Jarvis and other well known people of the Old North State have advised the officials here to-day that these two men are well known and highly respected. Taylor came to Virginia about the first of the year and was granted a charter to ROCK CLIFF LITHIA SPRINGS WATER.

READ WHAT ONE OF THE MOST NOTED CITIZENS OF SOUTH CAROLINA HAS TO SAY OF THE FAMOUS ROCK CLIFF SPRINGS WATER.

Spartanburg, S. C., July 24.
To Rock Cliff Lithia Springs Co.:

Gentlemen:—This will certify that I was severely afflicted with a serious case of erysipelas, that confined me to my bed for about six months or more, with daily attendance of my physician, and which eventually settled in my left leg and became so severe that a consultation of three physicians was held and the decision reached that the lower part of my leg would have to be amputated to prevent the disease extending to the upper part of my leg and body. I declined the operation and was advised to try Rock Cliff Lithia Springs Water. I engaged board near the spring and was advised to bathe my leg in the water, at the same time drinking freely.

This application soon soothed the pain, and for the first time in months previous I slept for about two hours. After a week's treatment, without any medicine or physician's help, I walked to the spring on crutches. I continued the treatment daily, and within two weeks was able to walk to the spring without crutches and in four weeks was able to walk home, a distance of 1½ miles, and resume my official business.

I was permanently cured by the use of the water, and take great pleasure in giving you this testimonial to the efficiency of the Rock Cliff Springs Water in the treatment of erysipelas.

"Wilson Heaters"

(Only Highest Grade Materials Used.)

The Wilson Heater will produce more heat from a unit of fuel, and keep your home at a more even temperature, with little or no trouble, and fewer ashes than any other heater made.

There is no Noxious Gas, Offensive Smoke or Cold Floor Draft where the Wilson Coal Heater is used.

Holds fire 36 hours or longer. The combustion is perfect—the heat does not go up the chimney. Burns every particle of the coal; does not make clinkers and leaves very little ash. Other stoves look much like the Wilson, but—that's all. None of them work like the Wilson and none are so good.

BARNUM & BAILEY.

Some of the Features With the Big Show This Season.

Les Rowlandes is the name of a company of French acrobats and riders who are said to be presenting an unusually novel act with the Barnum & Bailey circus this season. Les Rowlandes comprise a troupe of seven men and women. They make their entrance in a trolley-ho coach with four horses, buglers and outriders, and their preliminary gash around the hippodrome track creates a stir among the audience. The performance takes place in the middle ring, consists of a series of acrobatic feats in and over the trolley-ho and upon the backs of the rapidly running horses. Somersaults are thrown with equal agility from the coach to the horses and from one horse to another, and even from shoulder to shoulder while the coach is moving at a rapid gait. The act was introduced during the Madison Square Garden engagement of the big show and is credited with being one of the season's hits. Monday, November 12 is circus day.

Prof. Winston's educated sea lions are offered as a special feature of the trained animal circus with Barnum & Bailey. Seal acts are more or less familiar, but it is said that these sea lions are so much cleverer than anything of the kind hitherto presented to the public as to constitute a distinct novelty in trained animal displays. Winston's sea lions it is announced climb ladders, present little playlets, execute difficult selections on ordinary musical instruments, perform almost incredible feats of juggling and in other ways evidence their superior intelligence and training.

MRS. CRONENBERG DEAD.

Good Woman Entered Into Rest Yesterday—Funeral To-day.

Mrs. Caroline Cronenberg, wife of Mr. H. Cronenberg, and a woman held in the highest regard by all in the circle of her acquaintance, passed away yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the family home on Market street, after an illness with tuberculosis for more than a year during which she bore her suffering with great fortitude. The news of her death will come with sorrow to a great many.

Mrs. Cronenberg was born in Columbia, S. C., and was 51 years of age. She was a devoted member of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church and was a regular communicant there during the most of her life. She leaves to mourn their loss a sorrowing husband, two sons, Messrs. Willie and Henry Cronenberg, of this city; one brother, Mr. Henry Hennies, of Columbia and three sisters, Miss Annie Witvogle, of Columbia. The brothers, of Greenville, S. C., and Mrs. J. C. Weller, of Columbia. The brother and Miss Witvogle and Mrs. Weller were with Mrs. Cronenberg when she died. The remains will be taken to St. Paul's Church this afternoon at 1 o'clock and the funeral will be conducted from there at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

"The ONE WOMAN" COMPANY.

Tom Dixon's Great Play at Academy of Music To-day.

To-day the Academy will offer one of its most interesting bookings and one around which there centers great local enthusiasm. It will be Tom Dixon's "The One Woman," which has been touring the South with much success. The attraction will be offered both at matinee and night and seats for each went on sale yesterday. The production will be a big one from a scenic standpoint and the cast is an excellent one.

"The One Woman" is a play of powerful type, dealing with the burning question of Socialism, and is said to be as strong in action and plot as "The Clansman," though not as vivid. Two large audiences will greet it here, as yesterday there was a giant sale of seats, which indicates well the size of the audiences.

The company will arrive early this afternoon from Newbern.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Grant, of Conway, S. C., were guests at The Orton yesterday.

—Mr. William A. Price, of Davidson, arrived yesterday and is a guest at The Orton.

—Mr. F. P. Covington, of Cerro Gordo, was among yesterday's arrivals in the city.

—Mr. A. B. Williams, of Wade, N. C. was here yesterday and was a guest at The Orton.

—Mr. H. H. Eubank, the well known Parke-Davis representative, is in the city calling on the trade.

—Messrs. James M. Black, of Red Springs, and J. M. McKinnon, of Maxton, were guests at The Orton yesterday.

—Mr. A. E. Beddingfield, of the Raleigh News and Observer, was among yesterday's arrivals in the city and is registered at The Orton.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hans A. Kure, Jr., after a delightful bridal tour North, have returned to the city and will be at home to friends at No. 314 Nun street.

SEAWELL IN PENDER COUNTY.

Spoke to Small Crowd Yesterday—
Gin Burned at Burgaw.
(By Southern Bell Long Distance Telephone.)

Burgaw, N. C., Nov. 2.—H. F. Seawell, Republican of Carthage, arrived to-day and addressed a small crowd in the Court House here. He was introduced by Rev. W. E. Cowan, a Unitarian minister of Onslow county, and made a very good speech from a Republican standpoint. According to your correspondent's best information, however, the speech will not prove a vote-getter as there were present, to hear him an audience of not exceeding fifteen. Of these five were Republicans, one was a Populist and the remainder were Democrats, who went out to see what the speaker had to misquote. He spoke for about three-quarters of an hour and will go over to Kenansville to enlighten the voters of Duplin to-morrow.

The gin of the Burgaw Ginning Company here was destroyed by fire this afternoon about 4 o'clock. The blaze originated from sparks from the engine room and the total damage is about $2,500 or $3,000 on which there was no insurance. Four bales of unginned cotton were burned, ten bales already packed were badly damaged and $300 or $400 in cotton seed were lost.

OSMAN STOCK COMPANY.

Week's Engagement at The Theatre
Beginning Monday Night.

The Osman Stock Company which comes to the Academy of Music Monday night for a week's stay, is said to be the strongest repertoire company touring the South. The opening play will be a domestic melodrama in four acts, entitled "The Moonshiner's Daughter." The company this season is carrying some of the highest priced vaudeville acts ever carried by an attraction of this kind. Among the acts will be seen such well known vaudeville artists as Gita & Barrett, Marguerite Osman, Thompson & Farrell and Roy Dee.

The four persons making the most words out of the name, Marguerite Osman, will be awarded a season ticket each. The list must be left at advance sale before noon Monday. Prices 10c, 20c, and 30c.

MARINE HOSPITAL SURGEON.

Past Assistant Surgeon C. H. Lavinder
in Charge Here.

Documents now sent out from the Marine Hospital service in this city bear the name of Past Assistant Surgeon C. H. Lavinder, who has taken charge of the hospital here vice Dr. John Godfrey, who has been transferred. Whether Dr. Lavinder's appointment is permanent or temporary could not be ascertained yesterday.

IMMIGRANTS FOR THE SOUTH.

First Ship Expected To-day in Charleston From Germany.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 2.—Commissioner of Immigration Sargent, Commissioner of Labor Neill, Inspector Paul, of Ellis Island, and a corps of immigration inspectors, arrived here to-day to prepare for the reception of the immigrant ship Wittenkind which is expected to arrive to-morrow with 500 aliens from Bremen. This will be the first immigrant movement through a South Atlantic port in half a century and it is expected to prove of great importance. Many employers from various parts of the South are expected here to engage the immigrants.

DIED.

CRONENBERG—In this city at 2:30 P. M., Friday, November 2nd, 1906, Mrs. CAROLINE CRONENBERG, wife of Henry Cronenberg, aged 51 years. Funeral at 3:30 o'clock this (Saturday) afternoon at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church. Friends and acquaintances invited to attend.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The United States buoy tender Wistaria arrived in port yesterday evening on a regular inspection of the lights and buoys in the river and off this coast.

—Miss Elza B. Richardson, of Nashville, Tenn., has returned to the city and will resume her classes in the Domestic Science Department of the Union School.

—The only case tried in the police court yesterday was one against Sam Harris, colored, arrested at Front and Dock streets by Officer E. H. Dement, on a charge of vagrancy. He was given 20 days on the roads.

—Rev. R. W. Hogue, rector of St. James Episcopal parish, will be the speaker at their anniversary meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. An attractive musical programme has been arranged.

—The deed filed for record yesterday J. M. Bryant and wife, of Harnett township, transferred to Chas. G. Williams, for $350, ten acres of land in Harnett township and adjoining the lands of Elizabeth Williams, on Greenville road.

Dynasties of China.

There have been twenty-two dynasties in China, the royal history of this country being better ascertained than that of any other which reaches back to ancient times. With some few breaks, the Chinese have had a regular succession of sovereigns since Puhhi, who, the Chinese say, reigned from B. C. 2852 to 2737. According to Chinese tradition, Puhhi was no less a personage than the Noah of the Scriptures, who, after leaving his ark on Mount Ararat, traveled east and founded the Chinese empire. Chinese history asserts that several of their early monarchs ruled for over a century each, one reigning over China for 115 years, another for 102, another for 100, and so on. It is considered probable by historians that these figures represent rather dynasties than the reigns of individual sovereigns. China has had in almost direct descent, with no more than two or three breaks in the history of the royal family, thirty-three sovereigns, ninety-two emperors, two Tartar rulers, six Mogul emperors and three empresses.

Why Bees Work in the Dark.

Bees go out all day gathering honey, and work at night in the hive, building their combs as perfectly as if an electric light shone there all the time. "Why do they prefer to work in the dark?" is often asked. Every one knows that honey is a liquid with no solid sugar in it. After standing it gradually assumes a crystalline appearance or granulates and ultimately becomes a solid mass. Honey has been experimentally inclosed in well corked flasks, some of which were kept in perfect darkness, while the others were exposed to the light. The result was that the portion exposed to the light soon crystallized, while that kept in the dark remained unchanged. Hence we see why the bees are so careful to obscure the glass windows which are placed in their hives. The existence of the young depends on the liquidity of the saccharine food presented to them, and if light were allowed access to this it would in all probability prove fatal to the inmates of the hive.

The Right Age.

Among the litigants before the English courts some years ago was a Mrs. Weldon, who, indeed, was so constantly at law that Baron Pollock once remarked: "This lady has now such a very large business at the bar that we must give her every indulgence." Mrs. Weldon was not abashed by the judges and said many clever things in court. The reminiscences of the late John George Witt, K. C., include an anecdote of one of her appearances in the court of appeal. She was endeavoring to upset a judgment of Vice Chancellor Bacon, and one ground of complaint was that the judge was too old to understand the case. Thereupon Lord Esher said: "The last time you were here you complained that your case had been tried by my brother Bowen, and you said he was only a bit of a boy and could not do you justice. Now you come here and say that my brother Bacon was too old. What age do you want the judge to be?" "Your age," promptly replied Mrs. Weldon, fixing her bright eyes on the handsome countenance of the master of the rolls.

She Got a Seat.

A woman entered a well filled Broadway surface car. She was reasonably young, fairly well dressed and good looking, but she walked with a deep, painful limp. As she clutched for a strap half a dozen men arose hastily and offered her seats. She took the nearest one and sank into it with a look of relief. The other men resumed their seats, and the car sped merrily on. Half a mile farther uptown the woman signaled the conductor to stop, and as the car slowed down she arose, walked jauntily out and stepped off the car with the nimbleness of a schoolgirl.

The man whose seat she had been occupying looked first amazed, then sheepish, as the other passengers began to grin at him, then joined in, as becomes an American when placed in trying circumstances.

"She's an actress at one of the Broadway theaters," chuckled a man sitting near him. "I know her by sight, and when she came in I thought she must have been hurt in an accident."—New York Sun.

ROOT'S SPEECH HELPS HERRST

of William R. Hearst for Governor. Mr. Bryan's letter follows:

"My Dear Mr. Coler:
"I am very anxious to see Hearst elected and would have come to New York to help him if I thought an outside speaker would have been of assistance. From indications, however, he is going to win as he ought to. If I have any friends there I want them to vote for him. ***"

(Signed) "BRYAN."
The portion of the letter not given out was of a personal nature, Mr. Coler said.

"Mr. Bryan should be enough for all Democrats in this State. As for Independents I cannot imagine that they are going to take the advice of the piratical leaders of the old predatory political system. They will, I think, before voting ask themselves why it is that every leading beneficiary of what was known as 'commercialism in politics' now bitterly and hysterically hostile to Mr. Hearst. Mr. Root's speech last night will, I think, help Mr. Hearst. It reminds me of the poster which contributed so much toward our success last year. A cowardly slander is a cowardly slander no matter who utters it."

Hughes Campaign.

New York, Nov. 2.—Back to New York from his third and final up-State tour Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for governor, plunged into the local fight and between 8 o'clock and midnight addressed three meetings in Queens county and six in the borough of Brooklyn.

In his speeches tonight Mr. Hughes covered much of the ground gone over in his previous addresses, not failing to attack the sincerity of his opponent, William R. Hearst, and urging his auditors to vote for a safe, sane and honest administration of State affairs.

CANDIDATE UP FOR LIBEL.

John B. Moran, Democratic Nominee in Massachusetts is Prosecuted.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 2.—John B. Moran, Democratic-Prohibition and Independence League candidate for governor, and James M. Perkins, who was secretary of the Massachusetts Board of Commissioners to the Clark Exposition at Portland, Ore., are named as defendants in a suit alleging slander, which was filed to-day in the Superior Court by Wilson H. Fairbank, chairman of the Board of Exposition Commissioners. The action is based on the charges made by Messrs. Moran and Perkins in connection with the expenditure of them oney appropriated by the State for the Oregon Exposition.

The accusation against Fairbanks was made by Mr. Moran in a political address made a week ago by reading an affidavit by Secretary Perkins, alleging misconduct on the part of Fairbanks as commissioner. In subsequent speeches Mr. Moran charged Commissioner Fairbanks with forgery and criticized Governor Guild for neglecting to remove Fairbanks, who is now a Commissioner to the Jamestown Exposition. The charges against Fairbanks are now under consideration by the Attorney General and the Assistant District Attorney of Suffolk county.

Puncturing a Fallacy.

The barber applied the rich brown dye with a fine tooth comb, combing it evenly into the grizzled locks of the old man.

"Hair dye, sir," he said. "Plain, unvarnished hair dye is the base of that absurd fallacy about people turning gray in a single night."

"If you investigate those yarns you find that invariably they concern persons in prison. Orsini, pining in jail, had his hair go back on him. Marie Antoinette, languishing in a cell, found the deep hue of her hair changing to an ugly gray. Raleigh, imprisoned in the tower, developed grayish streaks with incredible speed."

"The secret of all that, my dear, is this:

"These prisoners in order to conceal their gray hair dyed it, using a poor sort of dye, one of those sorts that have to be applied every day or two. In prison, naturally, they could not get hold of this dye, and hence their locks whitened at a miraculous rate. When people said of them pityingly that their hair gray in a single night they acquiesced themselves in the deception, for is it not embarrassing—I leave it to you, sir, is it not embarrassing—to explain to the world at large that one uses hair dye?"—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Well Timed Puns.

A southern clergyman, an inveterate punster, says that while he is well aware that puns belong to the lowest order of wit he is seldom able to resist the temptation to make one when opportunity offers.

On one occasion after preaching an eloquent sermon he was met by two friends, one of whom began to praise his discourse in enthusiastic terms. When he paused for breath the other man said, with a laugh:

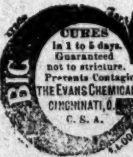

"Well, doctor, can you stand as much soft soap as that?"

"Indeed I can if there isn't too much lye in it," returned the minister quickly.

At another time he was present at the marriage reception of a young couple of the name of More. The occasion was somewhat stiff up to the time of the minister's entrance, and he quickly discovered the state of affairs.

"Madam," he said, with his radiant smile, addressing the awkward young bride, "how fortunate you are! There are so few people who can say with truth, 'The More I want the More I have.'"

The laugh which followed put the company at ease.

JAVA'S ISLAND OF FIRE.

It is Really a Lake of Boiling, Bubbling Mud and Slime.

The greatest natural wonder in Java, if not in the entire world, is the justly celebrated "Gheko Kamdka Gunko," or "Home of the Hot Devils," known to the world as the Island of Fire. This geological singularity is really a lake of boiling mud situated at about the center of the plains of Grobogan and is called an island because the great emerald sea of vegetation which surrounds it gives it that appearance. The "island" is about two miles in circumference, and is situated at a distance of almost exactly fifty miles from Solo. Near the center of this geological freak immense columns of soft, hot mud may be seen continually rising and falling like great timbers thrust through the boiling substratum by giant hands and the again quickly withdrawn. Besides the phenomenon of the boiling mud columns there are scores of gigantic bubbles of hot slime that fill up like huge balloons and keep up a series of constant explosions, the intensity of the detonations varying with the size of the bubble. In time past, so the Javanese authorities say, there was a tall spirelike column of baked mud on the west edge of the lake which constantly belched a pure stream of cold water, but this has long been obliterated, and everything is now a seething mass of bubbling mud and slime.

A Judge's Advice.

Recently a retired English judge was asked what was the most prominent conviction that remained with him after his long judicial experience, and he is said to have replied, "That every means should be tried for the settlement of a dispute before it be taken to the law courts."

COOKING DONE WITHOUT FIRE

Captain Murray's Invention a Success —United States Government Has Adopted It For Army Service
Hot Food on Line.

(Cleveland Leader.)

One of the latest arrangements the United States Government has adopted for its soldiers is the fireless cooker, invented by Capt. M. S. Murray of the commissary department, now on leave of absence, and living here. He is the man who about two years ago, started cooking and baking schools in connection with the army training school at Fort Riley, Kans., and which has cut down appreciably the army's indigestion.

This fireless cooker like any other piece of seeming magic, is run on strictly rational principles, though its accomplishments seem weird to the man just introduced to it. You put into it when you leave home—or leave the camp—in the morning the ingredients of your evening meal, and when you return all you have to do is open the wonderful box and put the dinner on the table, cooked to a turn and piping hot.

A box is just what it is, and for the usual army purposes must be especially big. The principles upon which the cooker works is simple. The food is first warmed up by being kept at the boiling point for a few minutes and is then put into the box, which is so built that practically none of the heat escapes and the high temperature given the food does the work without aid.

The box is, of course, divided into compartments so thoroughly sealed as to make impossible any mingling of odors. Thus—cabbage and plum pudding may be cooked at the same time, and neither will impregnate the other with its odors.

One excellent characteristic of the box is that in it nothing can be fried, for the heat never is great enough. Then again, the army's digestion is helped. Bread can be baked in it, but for the same reason of lack of external heat, the loaf will have no crust. It will be an unbroken mass of soft, spongy, stuff that the small boy delights to eat.

The cooker met with such success in Fort Riley and in the Pennsylvania maneuvers last summer, that the commissary department adopted it for general army use. It is pointed out that rations could be served hot along the battle front with this device, for the cooks could prepare the meals in the rear and the men in the trenches where no fires may be lighted would have hot food instead of cold rations.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy's drug store. Price 50c.

NEW MANAGEMENT FOR SEABOARD

W. A. Garrett Becomes First Vice President and General Manager—
Other Officials Suspect That Many Will be Out.

New York, November 1.—Announcement was made at the office of the Seaboard Air Line railway in this city to-day that W. A. Garrett, general manager of the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific and Alabama Great Southern railways, will be elected first vice-president and general manager of the Seaboard Air Line railway assuming the duties of his office December 1, 1906.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 1.—Mr. W. A. Garrett is to be both first vice-president and general manager of the Seaboard Air Line. His resignation as general manager of the Queen and Crescent took effect yesterday. It is reported that he leaves Cincinnati for the East to-day. Mr. Garrett will have full charge of the operation of the Seaboard system with headquarters here.

The appointment of Mr. Garrett came as a surprise to officers of the Seaboard and has caused uneasiness in Seaboard circles, with the expectation of many changes along the entire system.

With the appointment of Mr. Garrett comes the announcement also of the appointment of T. O. Cole, of the Hocking Valley railroad at South Bethlehem, Pa., as chief of car service of the Seaboard with headquarters in Portsmouth, Va. Mr. Cole succeeds Edward J. Cunningham who becomes trainmaster of the sixth division of the Seaboard with headquarters at Jacksonville, Fla. Mr. Cunningham, before becoming chief of car service here, was trainmaster of the south division of the Seaboard at Savannah, Ga.

E. F. Cost, formerly of Cincinnati, and now vice-president and traffic manager of the Seaboard here, will remain in that office.

A colored boy about 15 years old may obtain employment by making immediate application at the Star office. oct 30-St.

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, Nov. 2.—The cotton market was very weak and unsettled during today's trading and reached new low levels for the movement. The close was steady but within a couple of points of the bottom at a net decline of 13 to 19 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 300,000 bales.

The market opened steady at an advance of one point on November but generally 3 to 5 points lower in response to lower cables, renewal of bear pressure and liquidation. The decline to 9.99 for January and 10.17

for March caught no stop loss orders of consequence and the market rallied

a few points, but pressure was renewed on the advance and the market weakened after a private crop report was issued showing an improvement in the condition of the crop for the last two weeks of two per cent. instead of a deterioration as looked for. The second break uncovered stop orders and January touched 9.91 and March 10.07, or 19 to 20 points under the closing figures of the previous day and about 140 points down from the high point touched on October 15th.

There was enough covering at the decline to steady the markets slightly but no fresh buying for the account.

Record breaking into sight figures helped the bear side.

Receipts cotton at the ports today

66,691 bales against 64,524 last week

and 50,137 last year. For the week

480,000 bales against 467,415 last week and 350,280 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 15,525 bales 6,

530 last year and at Houston 19,280

ables against 18,708 last year.

ROOT'S SPEECH HELPS HEARST

Thus Thinks Bird S. Coler, One of New York's Leading Democrats.

W. J. BRYAN WRITES LETTER

Nebraskan Urges Democrats to Support Hearst—Whirlwind Campaign in Greater New York Last Night by Candidates.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 2.—Re-echoes of yesterday's developments in the political situation in this State were heard on every side to-day in the comments of political leaders on the Richard Croker interview and the speech of Secretary of State Root at Utica last night. Fresh interest was aroused by the publication of a letter from William J. Bryan to Bird S. Coler, borough president of Brooklyn, in which the writer expressed the hope that all Democrats would support William Randolph Hearst for governor. Those and the further fact that both Charles E. Hughes and William R. Hearst, the candidates for governor on the Republican and Democratic-Independence League tickets, respectively, were once more on the stubbornly contested ground of the city of Greater New York brought the political interest to a fever pitch.

Tonight Mr. Hughes and Hearst gave their attention to the voters of Kings and Queens counties, both making whirlwind dashes from place to place in order to carry out the details of the long programmes mapped out for them by their respective campaign managers.

Mr. Hearst was slated to speak at thirteen different meetings in Brooklyn, Long Island City and Queens county, while Mr. Hughes' night's campaign called for equally as strenuous work. Besides meetings arranged for the two gubernatorial candidates, both parties held numerous rallies throughout Manhattan in the interests of candidates for less important offices. Everywhere there were crowds to listen to the various speakers and political enthusiasm reached the highest pitch.

Mr. Hearst was slated to speak at for New York city. En route he made stops at Schenectady, Catskill and Newburgh. At the former place he made three speeches, one in a hall, and one each at the works of the two large industrial concerns, where he spoke directly to many thousands of workmen, appealing to them to support his party in the coming election. His last speech outside the city of Greater New York was made at Catskill in the afternoon where he addressed an enthusiastic meeting at the town theatre. Immediately afterward he started for New York. Reaching this city at 6 o'clock, he took but a brief rest before entering upon the long list of meetings scheduled for tonight in Brooklyn and Long Island. It was late in the night before he concluded. Reviewing his up-State campaign tonight, Mr. Hughes expressed satisfaction at the prospects of Republican success and declared he was gratified "with the hearty support of the Republican organization throughout the State." He added that "the support of old line Democrats was probably the most significant feature of the campaign" and that it was now simply "a question of getting out the vote."

Mr. Hearst was forced to rest during the day because of the serious condition of his throat after last night's speech making. He resumed his labors tonight, however, and was whirled about Brooklyn and Long Island in an automobile for speeches at many places. His first appearance was at Watson's theatre, Brooklyn, where an enthusiastic crowd awaited him. Mr. Hearst's voice showed the effects of his vigorous campaign up-State and when he commenced his first address to-night he found difficulty in making himself heard by those in the rear of the theatre. As it was after 6 o'clock when he started on his round of meetings it was not believed late tonight that he would be able to carry out the programme.

One of the speakers at the principal Hughes' meeting in Brooklyn tonight was Oscar S. Straus, who will soon become a member of President Roosevelt's cabinet.

Leaders of both parties tonight renewed their professions of absolute confidence in the outcome of Tuesday's balloting. Timothy Woodruff, chairman of the Republican State committee, declared he was perfectly satisfied with the prospects and predicted for Mr. Hughes a sweeping victory. On the other hand Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany, reiterated his assurance that Tammany would poll its full vote for Hearst and that he was confident the Democratic candidate would be elected by a large majority.

ROOT KNOCKED BY MR. HEARST

Roosevelt's Cabinet Mouthpiece Was Boss Attorney for Numerous Big Trusts

TRUST GANG HANG TOGETHER

Hughes Was Attorney for String of Monster Corporations—Grave Charge Against Senator Knox, Ex-Member of Mr. Roosevelt's Cabinet.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 2.—With failing voice but determined spirit, William R. Hearst, gubernatorial candidate on the Independence League and Democratic tickets, started out tonight to fulfill the programme mapped out for him by his campaign managers. The schedule called for 13 addresses before as many audiences in Brooklyn and in Queens county. Wherever the candidate went he met with enthusiastic reception. Crowds cheered his appearance at many places and other crowds that hoped to see him and did not, cheered for him just the same. Mr. Hearst departed from his prepared speech in one instance to reply to a question from the audience about "Murphy." Mr. Hearst said:

"I went to the Buffalo convention with 213 votes out of Greater New York, and Murphy nor no other boss would have dared to oppose me."

Generally throughout the evening Mr. Hearst spoke substantially as follows:

"I was attacked last night by Mr. Croker, who claimed to represent Democracy, and by Mr. Root, who claimed to represent Republicanism. I know nothing that has tended more clearly to show the truth of my statement than in this campaign Democrats and corporations Republicans were united in support of the corporation lawyer at the head of the corporation ticket. Mr. Croker, whose ice trust mayor I drove out of office, endorses McCarren as a noble example of corporation Democrat. Mr. Root, corporation attorney for the Metropolitan Traction Company, in the Jake Sharp bribery cases, and for the whiskey trust, the tobacco trust, the steel trust, the sugar trust, the gas trust, the watch trust, and the insurance trust endorses Mr. Hughes, corporation attorney for the lighting trust, the shipbuilding trust, the New York, West Chester and Boston franchise grab, and the sugar trust."

"Mr. Root, today a public official, who occupies a high place in the United States government and who should represent the whole people of these United States regardless of party, has dragged his high position into a partisan campaign, and into a personal attack in a local situation in order to serve his corporation masters."

"Last year, Mr. Ryan issued through Mayor McCallan postal cards bearing libelous and indecent attacks upon me which the United States government stopped in the mails. This year Mr. Ryan puts forth those same indecent and slanderous attacks through his corporation attorney, through a man who is still his faithful servant, though in public office, and partly paid by the people."

"It is natural that Mr. Root, who defended boss Tweed, the most corrupt politician of his day, should join hands with boss Croker, the most corrupt politician of the present day, in support of Mr. Hughes. It is natural that Mr. Root, who appeared for the Metropolitan Traction Company in the Jake Sharp cases and who was himself accused of bribery by four men, who testified under oath that he had given them money for their votes, should unite with Patrick McCarren, the professional briber of the Standard Oil Company, the gas trust and the Brooklyn Rapid Transit, to support Mr. Hughes and oppose me."

"I have said I am proud of the enemies I have made and I am prouder of none than I am of Elihu Root, boss Croker and Pat McCarren. You know this man Croker is fighting me because I fought his ice trust mayor for betraying the people, and drove him out of office."

"Mr. Root objects to my opposing Senator Knox. I have no personal hostility for this man Knox and I do not think I have ever seen him or met him, but I do know that I sent him documentary evidence that absolutely convicted the coal roads of criminal combination and of crushing out independent coal mine owners. He pocketed that evidence and refused to act for two years, although his United States district Attorney Burnett had reported to him that this evidence sustained all my charges against the coal trust and warranted their prosecution, and although he recommended to Knox that the government institute proceedings against these roads in the eastern district of Pennsylvania. I was finally compelled to proceed outside of the Attorney General's office and brought my evidence before the Interstate Commerce Commission, and before the interminable delay and inadequate powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission, I introduced the railroad rate bill in Congress which the Republican party taken the credit for. I positively assert that

FAILED TO REACH THE NORTH POLE

Lieutenant Peary Expedition Heard from and is Safe In Arctic Region.

EXPLORER BEAT ALL OTHERS

Reached Furthest Point North of All World's Polar Expeditions—Had to Eat His Dogs—Rescued Two Starving Expeditions.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 2.—The United States now holds the record of furthest north 87 degrees, 6 minutes. This feat was accomplished by Commander Robert E. Peary, of the United States navy. The intrepid Arctic explorer failed to reach the North pole, as he had confidently hoped to do with his specially constructed vessel, the Roosevelt, but he penetrated nearer to the Pole than the Duke of Abruzzi's expedition which had held the Arctic record, 86 degrees, 34 minutes. What Commander Peary did and his experiences during the past year are rather briefly but vividly summarized in a communication received tonight by Herbert L. Bridgeman, secretary of the Peary Arctic Club. This communication follows:

"Hopedale, Labrador, via Twillingate, Newfoundland, Nov. 2.—"Herbert L. Bridgeman:

"Roosevelt wintered north coast Greenland, somewhat north of Alert winterquarters. Went north with sledges February, via Heekla and Columbia. Delayed by open water between 84 and 85 degrees. Beyond 85 six days. Gale disrupted ice, destroyed catches, cut off companion with supporting bodies and we drifted due east. Reached 87 degrees, 6 minutes, north latitude, over ice, drifting steadily eastward. Returning, ate eight dogs. Drifted eastward, delayed by open water, reached northeast Greenland in straightened conditions. Killed musk oxen and returned along Greenland coast to ship. Two supporting parties driven on northeast Greenland. One rescued by me in starving condition. After one week's recuperation, Roosevelt sledged west, completing north coast, Greenland and reached other land, near one hundredth Meridian. Homeward voyage incessant battle with ice, storms and head winds. Roosevelt magnificent ice fighter and sea boat. No deaths or illness in expedition."

(Signed.) "Peary."

The Republican party stole the greater part of my bill, and that they would have had a better bill if they had stolen all of it. And that is my answer also to Mr. Root's criticism of my course in Congress.

"Finally, I say that the same recognized unwritten rule that makes the President of the United States the President of all the people and not of any faction or section should apply to the officers of his administration, and that when Elihu Root, Secretary of State for the United States, drags his high Federal office into a State election and into a personal and partisan attack, he degrades his office to his own level."

Will Stick to Hearst. Several Tammany district leaders declared that the cablegram from Mr. Croker will make no difference in their plans for the coming election.

George F. Scannell said that he had been born in Mr. Croker's own district and the lesson the old chieftain was always preaching was one of regularity. "I was thunderstruck when I read Mr. Croker's cablegram," said Mr. Scannell. "I have instructed my men to vote the straight ticket."

Charles F. Murphy the Tammany Hall leader, to-day said he believed that neither President Roosevelt's sentiments, as expressed through Secretary Root at Utica last night, nor Richard Croker's endorsement of Senator McCarren's stand, will affect the general result of the election. "The people's mind is made up," said Mr. Murphy.

Wants Hearst Elected.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 2.—William J. Bryan, when shown tonight the extract from his letter endorsing the candidacy of William R. Hearst for Governor of New York, made public in New York today by Bird S. Coler, said:

"That letter is authentic. I have been writing letters and giving out interviews all through the campaign to the same effect. I have endorsed Mr. Hearst, and I want to see him elected. I saw a statement given out yesterday by the Bryan League of New York in which it was announced that while the league was doing all it could for the rest of the ticket, it was opposing the election of Mr. Hearst. I immediately wired Willis J. Abbott, protesting against the use of my name by any organization in opposition to Mr. Hearst."

When his attention was called to the speech of Secretary Root at Utica last night, Mr. Bryan said:

"It seems to me that the Republicans in New York must be frightened when they bring the President into the controversy, and especially in the way they have."

HOLDING POW-WOW WITH UTE INDIANS

Army Officers Conferring With Big Chiefs and They Will Give In

SOME RED SKINS WANT FIGHT

Chief Appar Deposed Because He Held Pow-wows—Black Whiskers and Red Cap Chosen Because They Will Fight.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Sheridan, Wyo., Nov. 2.—A messenger arriving at Arapahoe from the conference between Col. Rodgers and Maj. Gerson and the Utes, reports that the conference was still in session when he left, but the indications were that the Indians would give in. It is said that the military offered to take the Utes home, issue rations during the winter and promised to take up the question of allowing them another abiding place by next spring.

A correspondent in the field denies positively reports that there has been a clash between the Cheyennes and the soldiers. Fort Keogh troops are now patrolling Tongue River Valley near Ashland and have not seen any Cheyennes. It is known that there are Indians in that section. The Ute chief, Appar, is reported deposed by his tribe because he favored a pow-wow with the troops. It is said he was supplanted by Black Whiskers and Red Cap who favor union with the Cheyennes and offering resistance.

The Ute Indians now almost 400 strong and with 1,100 ponies, are still camped on Little Powder river in Montana, 35 miles northeast of Moorhead. A messenger who arrived to-day at Arapahoe talked with Chief Unkaskia, who said: "Snow comes, we go to see Sioux pretty soon. Cheyennes come not now."

STRIKE ON SOUTHERN IS OFF.

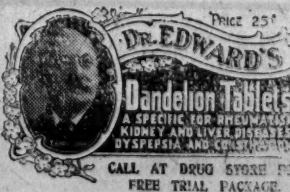

Machinists Will Return to Work Monday—Will Arbitrate Wages.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Washington, Nov. 2.—The strike of machinists on the Southern Railway, which was inaugurated recently for an increase in wages was settled to-day.

An amicable adjustment has been reached with the committee of machinists, under which the strike will be declared off and the men now on strike will return to their old positions on Monday morning, November 5th, without prejudice, on account of the strike.

The men who remained with the company are to continue at work. Those who have been employed since the strike will be retired from the shops before Monday morning, but without prejudice as to their continued employment by the company in other places or as to their future employment in the shops if needed. Special instructions will be issued as to how to proceed with these employees. The wages offered by the company to the machinists prior to the strike are to apply from November 5th and the company's proposition to arbitrate the difference between that scale and the demand of a uniform advance of 2 cents per hour for machinists and one cent per hour for apprentices has been accepted and the arbitration will be arranged for under the plan and bases suggested by the company as promptly as practicable.

This adjustment took place at a conference in New York November 2 between the Hon. Seth Low, chairman of the conciliation committee, Mr. R. M. Eastley, chairman of the executive council, V. Everett Macey and Mr. S. B. Donnelly, members National Civic Federation, the officers of the Southern Railway Company and the president of the International Association of Machinists, and the local committee of Southern Railway machinists.

There's no use getting mad if that for sale sign you stuck on the front of your vacant house has not brought you a tenant or purchaser. Your sign has been read and reread by practically the same people, who pass by it every day and who are too intent on other things to stop and look over the property. Now, if you would advertise in the Business Locals of the Morning Star it would come before the eyes of all the people looking for real estate. This is because they are accustomed to have the Morning Star tell them what property in Wilmington may be had.
